

Mr. Irving "Mac" Townsend is the Technical Director for Architecture and Engineering as part of the Chief Information Office (CIO) for the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA). In this role, Mac is the lead architect and engineer for the implementation of DIA Information Technology (IT) infrastructure, data services, software development, and mission, business and IT applications development. Prior to this role, Mac was the Senior Technical Officer for Data Management. Mac has served DIA as a senior executive for over 14 years and has over 30 years of industry and government experience in all aspects of IT.